

TERRINA M. GOSA, M.S., CCC-SLP
terrinagosa@augustana.edu

EDUCATION:

- Bachelor of Arts in Communication Sciences and Disorders
Augustana College, Rock Island, IL
- Master of Science in Speech-Language Pathology
Illinois State University, Bloomington, IL

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

- February 1986 - Present
Speech-Language Pathologist for Moline Deaf/Hard of Hearing Program
- August 2005 - Present
Moline Deaf/Hard of Hearing Program Head Teacher/Supervisor of Deaf/Hard of Hearing Teachers and Educational Interpreters
- August 2014 - Present
Part-time Clinical Supervisor for the Augustana College Center for Speech, Language, and Hearing

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS:

- Certificate of Clinical Competence from the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association
- Illinois Professional Educators License in the areas of Speech-Language Pathology and Supervision, Preschool - High School
- Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation License
- Past President and Board Member, Quad-Cities Speech-Language-Hearing Association
- Member, Illinois Supervisors of Programs for Deaf and Hard of Hearing Individuals

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

- Expertise in the areas of hearing loss in children and its impact on speech, language, and academic development
- Presenter on hearing loss for educator and parent groups
- Fluent in sign language